Gyanshree School celebrated Abhimanch- V, the fifth Annual of function the school on the 8th and 9th of December, 2018 with great exuberance and zest.

Dr. Mahesh Sharma, Minister of State for Culture and Tourism and Shri Sunil Arora, Chief Election Commissioner were the honourable Chief guests. Dr. Uma Tuli, Shri S. C Gaurand other luminaries graced the programme as the Guests of Honour, Shri. M. L. Agarwal, Chairman- Gyanshree School, Director, Mrs. Rita Kapur and members of the managing committee, members of the press and Shreeparents were present to witness the grand event.

On the 8th of December, Shreeyans of the Pre- Primary and the Primary wings presented themed musical and theatre performances. A double dose of entertainment was lined up for the morning show. Through the theatrical productions, The Rainbow Fish and Pinocchio, young Shreeyans presented the value of sharing and being truthful. The evening culminated in a vibrant musical theatre, an adaptation of the German folktale, "The Pied Piper of Hamelin" presented by 600 Shreeyans of the Primary Wing. The performance revolved around the universal values of honesty, goodness and forgiveness. The props and stage decorations created assembled by our young artists were applauded and appreciated by all.

Dr. Mahesh Sharma, appreciating the choice of value- based themes for the performances, reinforced the need to nurture the values of integrity, truthfulness and honesty.

The invocation, which was the inaugural event of the Secondary wing on the 9th of December, was a soulful musical performance titled ShreeDhunn-an amalgamation of nine ragas. The musical rendition was presented by 101 Shreeyans of the school choir- Shreesunaad.

MahaPanchbhutam, the main highlight of the day, was a revival of the concept of the five elements- space, air, fire, water and earth which according to Indian Philosophy are the basis of cosmic creation. The Dance drama beautifully integrated various dance forms and emphasized on the need to balance the five elements both within ourselves and within the planet.

Mrs. Brinda Ghosh, Principal- Gyanshree School addressed the gathering and brought to fore, the achievements of the school and the Principal's vision for the next year.

The Annual report of the school encapsulating the achievements of Shreeyans in academics, co-curricular activities and sports was presented by Shreeyans of grade X. The accomplishments of Shreeyans in various fields were recognised in the prize distribution ceremony and the much awaited 'Student of the Year' award was announced.

Mrs. Rita Kapur, Director (Education) - Gyanshree School appreciated the efforts of the Shreeyans for adapting the concept of the five elements and making it relevant in the contemporary scenario. She added that it is through such functions that students imbibe the 21st century skills of collaboration, team work, communication and creativity.

Chief Guest, Shri Sunil Arora emphasized on the need of holistic development in education. He encouraged students to think beyond the traditional career choices and work towards their specific goals. He appreciated the efforts of the Shreeyans, Shreegurus and members of the management in making the Abhimanch- V a great success.
